"I would like to thank Oxford House for giving me the opportunity to live in a sober and clean environment so I could regain control of my life and responsibilities.

As of today, I am over 20 months clean and sober and have moved out on my own. Oxford House has opened my eyes to what I was missing and how to better deal with life issues as they arise. Thanks for the support when I needed it the most – you've been a great inspiration to me."

Who we are

Oxford House is a network of 31 homes across Calgary and Edmonton

How we do it

We empower individuals to take responsibility for their recovery and encourage them to make valuable contributions to society

What we do

Provide safe and affordable homes for individuals in recovery

Why we do it

We believe in the goodness, dignity and potential of men and women with alcohol and drug addiction

We believe that by providing recovering individuals with safe and affordable housing they will have the best opportunity for full long-term recovery and become contributing members in society

You can help

Your generosity makes a drastic difference for a person in recovery

$27.30 provides 5 days/nights in an Oxford home for a man or woman in recovery
$54.60 provides 10 days/nights in an Oxford home for a man or woman in recovery
$166.76 provides 1 month in an Oxford home for a man or woman in recovery

If someone close to you had taken the courageous step to stop drinking, stop using drugs, or stop gambling and needed a safe and affordable place to continue their recovery, wouldn't you want them to find a home at Oxford?

Yes, I would like to support Oxford House
